Labyrinth Network Northwest (LNN) facilitates communication and between labyrinth-interested people in the Pacific Northwest. LNN is a totally volunteer organization. LNN's website is a valuable resource used by labyrinth enthusiasts around the world resources used by labyrinth enthusiasts around the world.

Marlise Stroebe has been a member of LNN's planning circle for many years. She is donating her time, talent, and use of her studio to show her support of LNN.

LNN operates on a very limited budget, and help is needed to allow us to keep our website online and to continue to offer a variety of interesting and inexpensive labyrinth events.

If you would like to support LNN but are unable to attend the concert, we would welcome your donations.
