

From: Kay Kinneavy kay@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org
Subject: 2 Labyrinth Opportunities - This Saturday, June 25
Date: June 23, 2016 at 2:41 AM
To: LNN Announcements announcements@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org

Labyrinth at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Portland, OR

Caregiving for a Loved One A Labyrinth Experience for Direction and Insight

Saturday, June 25, 2016
9 AM - Noon
Trinity Episcopal Cathedral
147 NW 19th Avenue
Portland, OR

The Trinity Labyrinth Guild is hosting a workshop presented by Patricia Newton a retired geriatrician who has worked with patients and families facing illness for 40 years. She has also been trained in labyrinth facilitation. Dr. Sue Rose, a specialist in the psychiatric care of elderly patients and their families with co-facilitate this workshop.

Flier for additional information: http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources/2016/160625_Caregiving.pdf

Registration or questions - contact Trish@keyosk.com or 503-312-4786

A Day of Reflection and Spring Labyrinth Walk at The Grotto

Saturday, June 25, 2016
8:00 AM - 5:00 PM

This day of reflection will involve three distinct moments in exploring the beauty of The Grotto: awareness and recognition of the beauty of creation, the unfolding of the experience of beauty from within, and the embrace of this beauty ever ancient and ever new. All of this will be in the context of walking the labyrinth in The Grotto's beautiful upper gardens. Please bring a sack lunch.

More info available on the LNN Calendar: <http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/calendar.html>

Labyrinth Network Northwest will host a special labyrinth walk at Cerimon House on July 25, 2016
This is a rare opportunity to walk the Genesa Labyrinth - a unique labyrinth designed by LNN member Ansula Press
Details of this event will be coming soon - check the LNN Calendar

Kay Kinneavy
Labyrinth Network Northwest
275 NW Lost Springs Terrace, #106
Portland, OR 97229
kay@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org
<http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/>

