The Bridge
New Art Exhibit around the Labyrinth
at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in Portland
July 10 - August 21, 2016

Trinity Episcopal Cathedral will host a ground-breaking exhibition of 47 premier Arab, Persian and Jewish contemporary artists from 15 countries of Muslim, Christian and Jewish traditions. The Bridge, exploring the theme of what "bridges" us to each other, as well as what they hold in common across their religions and cultures, will be on view July 10 through August 21 at the Cathedral.

A special labyrinth walk for The Bridge will be held on Sunday, July 17

The Bridge Art exhibit and all the associated events are free and open to the public.

The Bridge Labyrinth presentation and walk

Sunday, July 17, 2016
4:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Trinity's Labyrinth Guild invites people of all faiths and spiritual backgrounds to walk together in the eleven circuit labyrinth in Kempton Hall, where The Bridge is displayed. There will be an orientation, peace prayers from many faith traditions will be offered and art tools will be available for creative reflection.

Although this is an independent event, Labyrinth enthusiasts are encouraged to participate in the whole day of The Bridge events surrounding this labyrinth walk

The Genesa Labyrinth

LNN Labyrinth Walk on the Genesa Labyrinth

celebrating
A Day Out of Time
at Cerimon House
Monday, July 25, 2016
3:00 PM - 7:00 PM

This event is a very rare opportunity to walk the Genesa Labyrinth created by LNN member Ansula Press. The Genesa labyrinth has traveled to many important events where it was walked by people from around the world. It has not been available for walking in Portland for several years. Come and walk this unusual labyrinth.

For more information about the Genesa Labyrinth read the article on the LNN Reflections Page
