World Labyrinth Day will be May 4, 2019!

On May 4, 2019 people in all parts of the globe will "walk as one at 1." How will you be celebrating? If you have a WLD event planned, we would love to know about it. Last year we had a record number of ten labyrinth events posted to the LNN Calendar. We are hoping to do even better this year. Please send us your event as soon as your planning is completed. We would like to have all events submitted by April 20, but if you miss this deadline, please send us your information anyway. To submit to the calendar, please click

We know of two events so far that are definitely scheduled for Oregon. First, Labyrinth Network Northwest and the Trinity Labyrinth Guild will collaborate on a joint event at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in Portland. The event will include the opportunity to work with art materials. LNN and Trinity would welcome a few more volunteers from the LNN community. If you want to help, please respond to this message.

The second event will take place in Corvallis, where the Liminal Space Society will host an event from 10 to 3 at South Waterfront Park featuring a mown Man in the Maze labyrinth. To learn more about this event, see www.tracimcmerritt.com.

Neither of these events are on the LNN calendar yet as the details are still being completed. As soon as you complete your planning, go ahead and send us the information to post. You could be the first!
