We have an exciting week ahead of us. Beginning with World Labyrinth Day on Saturday May 4, there will be a variety of interesting labyrinth events 4 days in a row in the Portland area. Sunday and Monday Clive Johnson from England is stopping in Portland with his labyrinth for his project Labyrinth Around America. You have 2 opportunities to meet Clive and walk his special labyrinth in Portland... Sunday at Cerimon House and Monday at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral. Tuesday will be a Maypole Dance on the Labyrinth at Trinity. For information about all of these events check the LNN Calendar

Tomorrow is World Labyrinth Day. Wherever you are, join more than 5,000 people around the globe who will be walking as one at one in their own time zones. If you can't attend a special event, find a labyrinth near you and walk alone or with a friend. Want to find a labyrinth?

There are also many different kinds of virtual labyrinths available for computer or iPad.
