TLS International Gathering is Coming to Oregon!

October 8-10th, 2009

by Stephen Shibley, Planning Team Chair

LNN is thrilled to announce that the 2009 TLS International Gathering will be held at McMenamins Edgefield in Troutdale, just 20 minutes east of Portland, Oregon. Our planning team is working hard to make this one the most wonderful and inspiring Gatherings that TLS has ever seen!

McMenamins Edgefield is a delightful and creative feast for the senses. An historic Poor Farm has been transformed into a vibrant and stimulating art-filled destination resort where visitors are charmed and rejuvenated. From rockers on the porches to meadows, vineyards, gardens and spa pools, this quintessential expression of the Pacific Northwest invites guests to explore and interact with the farm's lush surroundings in creative, playful and spirit-filled ways.

This will be the first time that a TLS Gathering has been held in the Pacific Northwest. If you are interested in volunteering to be part of this hosting team then please let us know, we would love to have you! We are requesting that volunteers register their interest with us by selecting from the following general categories: Hospitality, Logistics, Publicity, or "Wherever I'm Needed". We will also be looking for an experienced Volunteer Coordinator.
