Re: In memory of Virginia

I love that a church who wasn't even affiliated with Virginia made this effort in Virginia's memory and to the awareness of domestic violence. I know she would be thankful if she could tell you herself. So please let me say thank you for her.

I have had the opportunity to have met Virginia and also chat with her on the phone for many a long conversations and she was very concerned about those she loved, and seemed to always be trying to be the peacemaker.

What a horrific way for her to have passed on. Such a betrayal of love and trust.

I pray for peace for her soul and every blessing of love that she tried to pass on here on earth.

You will not be forgotten by me!

Re: In memory of Virginia

I must admit this is the most positive truth I have heard in Virginia's honor since her violent death. Thank God!
